

CONTENTS

JAROSŁAW JAKIELASZEK Kochanowski, Lament 16.29-32: Cicero and his ultimate failure	15
JAN TOMKOWSKI Pan Tadeusz as an „antibook”	37
ZUZANNA WASILEWSKA-LIPKE Smagła swoboda as Marian Pankowski’s „motherland of word”	59
ALEKSANDRA KREMER Book of translations as a self-commentary. On bruchsünden und todstücke by Witold Wirpsza.....	67
PRZEMYSŁAW KORDOS At the First Cemetery of Athens.....	83
ZUZANNA WASILEWSKA-LIPKE A cemetery as a story. What is the story of Dieweg Cemetery in Uccle?	99
DANUTA SOSNOWSKA Silent Prague Cemeteries	127
ALEKSANDRA KUNCE Things which died. Why do we go to the dead parks in Silesia?.....	145
BARBARA MILEWSKA-WAŻBIŃSKA On the track of Szymon Starowolski’s Sarmatian necropolis	159

EDWARD KASPERSKI
On graveyard poetry – Robert Blair and Edward Young	179
ANNA KOBYLÍŃSKA
The world as a grave. Gnostic fears and Christian hopes of a Slovak poet Janko Kráľ	199
ANNA GEŚICKA
The motif of tomb in lais of Marie de France	221
EWA ROT-BUGA
„Small consolation from expensive tombs” – the motive of graves in New Russia Bucolics by Józef Bartłomiej Zimorowic	237
MAŁGORZATA GRZEGORZEWSKA
The homeless dead: the case of Shakespeare’s spectres.....	257
DAGMAR KROČANOVÁ ROBERTS
Slovakia: a Magic Cemetery. Dušan Mitana’s novel My Home Cemetery	271
MAŁGORZATA BOROWSKA
Mnimuria of Skiathos island. Cemetery in Alexandros Papadiamantis’ short stories.....	283